

February 15th Meeting Highlights

General News

The Board received an update that the Stark County Township Association will be coordinating with the Stark County Engineer to host an all township elected officials annual meeting at the new Canton Township Fire Station #1 in April to provide project and informational updates to elected officials.

The Board of Trustees scheduled separate upcoming work sessions with the Public Works, Zoning, and CTFD department leaders to discuss plans and priorities.

Fire Department

The Board agreed to purchase First Arriving Dashboard that will help better facilitate urgent need to know information on the daily and while responding to calls with CTFD staff.

Public Works Department

The Board approved a resolution to designate Donora Ave NE a "No Parking" street between Lincoln St E and the dead end of Donora Ave NE.

Community Day 2022 planning is well underway with decisions about live entertainment, fireworks, food vendors, children's play area, as well as other logistics being worked out. Sponsorship outreach efforts are also planned to get underway with a couple new sponsorship offerings this year to help offset increases in the cost of items such as fireworks. The annual event will be held at Faircrest Park on June 25th.

Zoning Department

The Board declared the following property as a nuisance as deemed by the Zoning Director, and order it abated per Ohio Revised Code 505.173 and/or 505.86 and/or 505.87 and the Canton Township Property Maintenance Code. 4110 Cheryl Ave SW for trash and debris.

The Zoning Commission is currently seeking an alternate board member for the 2022 term. Resumes can be submitted via email to l.datkuliak@cantontwp-oh.gov or by mail Attn: Canton Township Board of Trustees 4711 Central Ave SE Canton, OH 44707.

The Board approved a quote from Cardinal Group/ Cardinal Environmental Services to remove the asbestos from 2465 Waynesburg Dr SE with the cost to be split with half paid by the township and half paid through a grant.
