Some of the items purchased include: medical supplies, cleaning supplies, Chest Compression Systems, laptops and software (to enable remote work capability if that becomes necessary in response to COVID-19), equipment for remote/ distance learning, touch less fixtures, plastic picnic tables for parks, and ULV fogger/ chemicals.

Road News

The 2020 Paving Project has been completed, with 3.57 miles being paved. Total cost for 2020 paving comes to $497,968.13 and represents utilization of the largest portion of our annual road levy funds. Since the inception of the road levy, 49% of the townships 98 miles have received attention, with 51% remaining. Following the winter season, we will reevaluate roads to determine 2021 priorities.
