

January 17th Meeting Highlights

Public Works Department

WINTER WEATHER REMINDER:

A parking ban may be instituted during the winter weather season to allow for township vehicles to safely remove snow and ice from roadways. Any vehicle on or along the roadways during a snow parking ban may be subject to towing at the owners expense.

The Public Works Director updated the Board on ice/ snow road maintenance totals for the 2023/ 2024 winter season through the January 17th meeting. Year-to- date the estimated cost for labor, equipment use, and material (salt) is $94,700.

The Board approved the Southway Fence proposal in moving forward with the privatization of the residential yard waste site. The $42,000 project involves news gates and control motors, a card reader system, and other necessary work to close off the site to all except those who have paid for access. Details will follow on cost and registration.
